Second Sunday in Lent

February 17, 2008

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Jesus and Nicodemus," by Caspar Luiken, 1712

In the second Sunday of Lent, the scripture lessons emphasize faith and obedience. In Genesis God calls Abraham from his home to be a blessing to the earth. He follows this command, even in the face of uncertainty. Paul's letter to the Romans emphasizes that Abraham's obedience was rooted in belief and confidence in Israel's God. In John's gospel, Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born again. In doing so, Jesus intimates that Nicodemus, though a leader among the Pharisees, does not yet understand true obedience which grows from loving trust in the living God.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERTORY

The Church's One Foundation
(congregation sings text in bold)

Samuel Sebastian Wesley
(1810-1876)
arr. John Ferguson

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is his new creation by water and the Word.
From heaven he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation, yet one over all the earth;
Her charter of salvation: One Lord, one faith, one birth.
One holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder this world sees her oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping; their cry goes up: "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

How long, how long? Through toil and tribulation and tumult of her war,
She waits, she waits, she waits for peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union with God, the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
O blessed heavenly chorus! Lord, save us by your grace,
That we, like saints before us, may see you face to face.

*DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

This conference will give Christians and Christian organizations of all denominations a plan for revitalizing, deepening, and renewing their relationships with God. Renovaré will explore the Church's historic role in personal and corporate spiritual formation. Participants will rediscover time-tested, practical tools for growing spiritually. The conference provides a strategy for renewal and spiritual growth that combines the best from six historic traditions of Christian faith. For more information visit www.biblechurch.org/renovare.
