"Christ Appearing to His Disciples After the Resurrection" by William Blake, c. 1795

In the season of Easter the church reflects on its beginnings. The lesson from Acts tells of Peter's testifying to Jesus' life, death, and resurrection—proclaiming the story of God and inviting people to join in that story. In the first letter of Peter to the churches of Asia Minor, he encourages the young Christian communities in their Christian living, even in the midst of suffering. The gospel lesson of the day is also a story of beginnings—Jesus appearing to his disciples. The first response by the disciples is one of pure joy, followed by Thomas's lingering doubts, both of which encapsulate the delights and fears of Christian faith.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† Because of the Easter holiday, there will not be a tour of the Chapel after services today.
† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. <www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu>

Risen Christ, for whom no door is locked, no entrance barred: as we hear your word today, open the doors of our hearts, that we may seek the good of others and walk the joyful road of sacrifice and peace, to the praise of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST LESSON—Acts 2:14a, 22-32 (page 111-12 in the pew Bible)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

The Old Hundredth Psalm Tune

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell, come ye before him, and rejoice.
The Lord, ye know, is God indeed, without our aid he did us make;
We are his folk, he doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.
O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always, for it is seemly so to do.
For why? the Lord our God is good: his mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, the God whom heaven and earth adore,
From all and from the angel host, be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

SECOND LESSON—1 Peter 1:3-9 (page 218)

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

O Sons and Daughters, Let Us Sing

O FILII ET FILIAE

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Crown Him!

David Arcus

The congregation will join in singing the first stanza.

(b. 1959)

Crown him Lord of all!

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne.
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease, and all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end, and round his pierced feet
Fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of love; behold his hands and side,
Those wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified.
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou has died for me;
Thy praise and glory shall not fail throughout eternity. Amen!

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for School of Medicine. We celebrate its dedication to the physical care and healing of those people who suffer because of accident or illness and we lift up those who walk with patients through difficult times. A representative brings a stethoscope to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those addicted to pornography and prostitution and those who suffer from being exploited sexually. A representative brings forward an image of the woman from Luke 7.
