

DUKE UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

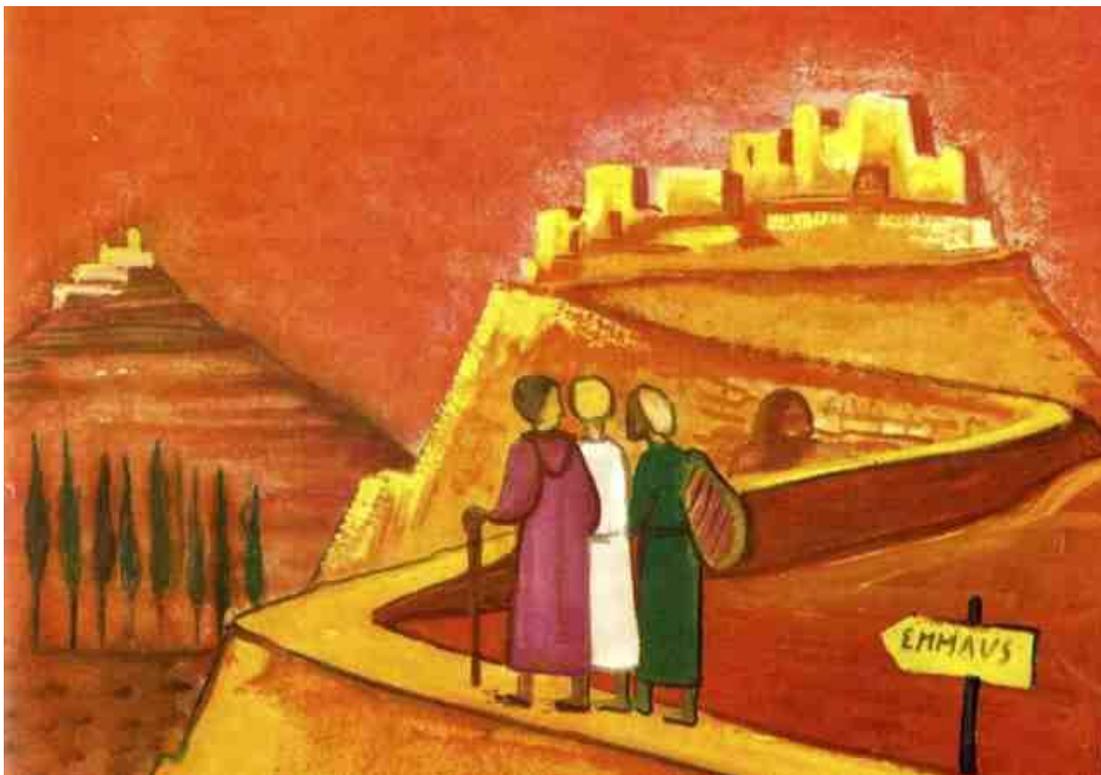

Service of Worship

Third Sunday of Easter

April 6, 2008

Eleven o'clock in the morning

∞ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ∞

"The Emmaus Wanderers," by Eric de Saussure, 1968

Today's sermon draws together two influences. The gospel of the day is the story of the risen Jesus meeting two forlorn disciples on the road to Emmaus, and being made known to them in the breaking of the bread. Meanwhile the Hope for Our World textile art exhibit adorns the nave of the Chapel. Today's worship seeks more specifically than usual to identify how the liberation brought by Jesus transforms conventional notions of the spiritual and the political, and thus brings true hope for our world.

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Duke Chapel is a grand building, suitable for hosting major events in the life of the University and its members; it acts as a moderator for the diversity of religious identity and expression on campus; and it is a Christian church of an unusually interdenominational character, with a tradition of stirring music, preaching, and liturgy. We welcome you to our life of worship, learning, dialogue, and service.

www.chapel.duke.edu • Box 90974, Durham, NC 27708 • 919-684-2572

FOR WORSHIPERS & VISITORS

† Prayer requests may be placed in the prayer box located by the Memorial Chapel.
† Because of the Easter holiday, there will not be a tour of the Chapel after services today.
† Hearing assist units and a Braille hymnal are available at the attendant's desk at the entry way of the Chapel. See the Chapel attendant if you would like to use one of our large-print Bibles or hymnals for the worship service this morning.

FOR FAMILIES & CHILDREN

† Children 4 and younger are welcome to visit the nursery (capacity limited), located in the Chapel basement, beginning at 10:50 a.m. each week. Pagers are available for parents to keep with them during worship. Parents needing a place to feed, quiet, or change infants are also welcome.
† Activity Bags are available at the rear of the Chapel for children 5 or younger. Please return the bags at the end of the service. Children's bulletins are available from the ushers.

We invite you to consider joining the Congregation at Duke Chapel. The Congregation is an interdenominational church with a variety of vibrant ministries, including discipleship and spiritual formation (for children, youth, and adults), mission and outreach, and pastoral care. If you are interested in making Duke Chapel your home church, contact the Rev. Nancy Ferree-Clark at 684-3917. <www.congregation.chapel.duke.edu>

Jesus, the health of the world, enlighten our minds, Great Redeemer, Son of the Father supreme, only begotten of God.

RESPONSE

*THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Nation Shall Not Lift Up a Sword Against Nation

(from Dona nobis pacem)

Ralph Vaughan Williams

(1872-1958)

Nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. And none shall make them afraid, neither shall the sword go through their land. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
Open to me the gates of righteousness, I will go into them. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled; and let them hear, and say, it is truth. And it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and they shall declare my glory among the nations. For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, so shall your seed and your name remain for ever. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men. —Adapted from Micah 4:3,

Leviticus 26:6, Psalms 85: 10 and 118:19,

Isaiah 43:9 and 66:18-22, Luke 2:14

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the department of Civil and Environmental Engineering. We celebrate the way they shape the imaginations of students in the ordering of public space and the questions of sustainable development. A representative brings a hard hat to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those volunteers within our community who work to help recently released prisoners adjust to newly directed life. A representative brings a photo of the Duke Chapel reconciliation and reentry team to the altar.

WAR REQUIEM

Benjamin Britten

The War Requiem was written for the 1962 consecration of the new cathedral in Coventry, replacing the one destroyed by bombing raids during World War II. Britten, who was a pacifist, brought together in this piece chilling World War I poetry by Wilfred Owen and the words of the Requiem Mass for the Dead. Conductor Rodney Wynkoop says, “Heard in conjunction with each other, these powerful texts decry the brutality of war even while lamenting and offering prayers on behalf of those whose lives have been sacrificed in war.”

In addition to the concerts, the Chapel will be sponsoring several lectures during the week leading up to the concert:

An Evening with Wilfred Owen: Life and Poetry

Dr. George D. Gopen, Professor of the Practice of Rhetoric, Duke University
Tuesday, April 15, 6:00 p.m., 0016 Westbrook Building
