"The Laborers in the Vineyard," by Sir John Everett Millais, 1864

Both scripture lessons today portray the people of God grumbling against God. In Exodus, the Israelites have been released from slavery, but in the midst of the desert wilderness, they long for the security and routine of their life in Egypt. In Matthew, Jesus tells the parable of the laborers in the vineyard, each of whom is paid the same daily wage despite having worked a different number of hours. In both Exodus and Matthew, the frustration of God's people is met with God's generosity and provision, as God rains manna on the Israelites and reminds the laborers that their anger grows out of his generosity, not any injustice they themselves have received.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

In That Great Gettin'-up Mornin' Spiritual
arr. Fenno Heath
(b. 1926)

In that great gettin'-up mornin', fare thee well.

Stop and let me tell you about the comin' of the Savior. God's gonna up and speak to Gabriel. Run and look behind the altar. Then the time shall be no longer, for the judgment day is comin'. Now pick up your silver trumpet, blow your trumpet, Gabriel. Lord, how long shall I blow it? Blow it so my people know it. Then you'll see the coffins burstin', see the dry-bones come a-creepin'. Hell shall be uncapped and burnin' and the dragon shall be loosened. Then you'll see the moon a-bleedin', you will see the stars a-fallin'. Then you'll see the sinner saying, down I'm rollin', down I'm rollin'. But the righteous will be marchin' and the Christians will be risin', marchin' to their home in heaven, marchin' to their home with Jesus.

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting A, on page 17 of the hymnal.)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.
