

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Service of Worship

First Sunday in Advent

November 30, 2008

Eleven o'clock in the morning

Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God

"Bright Candle in the Darkness" by Markus Merz

Advent Sunday marks the beginning of the Church's year. The Advent wreath in the center aisle marks the four Sundays of the season. The season of Advent looks to the two most significant moments in the Christian notion of history: the coming of Christ as one like us two thousand years ago, and his second coming at the end of time. Both scripture lessons today speak of the end days and the desire for God's ultimate justice. Isaiah calls to God, "O that you would tear open the heavens and come down!" That prayer was answered in an infant child many years ago, and we still offer that prayer today.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for graduate and professional students. We celebrate their diligence and discipline in seeking to become experts in particular fields of study. A representative brings a Duke doctoral hood to the altar.

In Durham, we give thanks for and lift up the many health ministries who work locally and globally to provide medical care and attention to those in need. The ushers bring a gauze bandage to the altar.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FLOWERS—The wreaths on both sides of the front entrance of the Chapel, the Advent Wreath, and the red poinsettias that adorn the balustrade are made possible by the Elizabeth Lucina Gotham Memorial Endowment, established by Dr. and Mrs. James H. Semans in loving memory of Elizabeth Gotham.

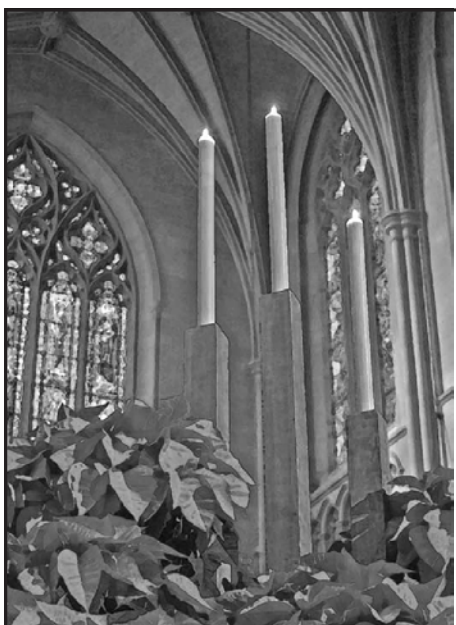

TODAY'S OFFERING—Today's offering will support Duke Chapel's engagement with the Durham community. Specifically, funds will support deepening relationships in the West End neighborhood as well as Dean Wells' Community Engagement series. These endeavors offer opportunities for those involved in the life of Duke Chapel to grow in faith together with downtown Durham neighborhoods and congregations. As Duke Chapel deepens its commitment to seek the welfare of the city of Durham, we hope these encounters will foster meaningful and transformational relationships in our community.

TODAY'S GUEST CHOIR—Sons of the Day is an independent male a cappella ensemble comprised of seven men living in and around Harrisonburg, Virginia. From its founding in September 2003, the group has been singing in a wide variety of venues, from church services, weddings, and community events to schools, chapel services, and other settings. Sons of the Day explores a variety of styles and genres including early music, folk, pop, contemporary choral, hymn arrangements, and more.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT—Duke Chapel has an email list for those interested in building friendships across boundaries and engaging with the West End and greater Durham community. Opportunities are emailed from Duke Chapel's Director of University and Community Relations Gaston Warner and Community Minister Abby Kocher. To subscribe to the list, contact Gaston Warner at g.warner@duke.edu.

CHORAL VESPERS
SERVICE OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

This Thursday, December 4, at 5:30 p.m., the Vespers Ensemble will lead an Advent service of Lessons and Carols in the chancel. This 30-minute candlelight service will feature scripture, hymns, and anthems focusing on the Advent season. Seasonal music will be played by Chapel Organist David Arcus beginning at 5:15 p.m.

Messiah

The Duke Chapel Choir, soloists, and orchestra will perform Handel's Messiah on December 5 at 7:30 p.m., December 6 at 2:00 p.m., and December 7 at 3:00 p.m., in Duke Chapel. The choir and orchestra of this year's Messiah will be performing from the Chapel crossing, improving the clarity of the sound for the listener. Tickets are $15 for adults, $5 for non-Duke students, and free for the first 300 Duke students. Tickets are available at the Duke Box Office by calling 684-4444 or at www.tickets.duke.edu

The following Congregation opportunities are open to all.

ADULT FORUM—Next Sunday, December 7, Dean Sam Wells will discuss his new book, Speaking the Truth: Preaching in a Pluralistic Culture. Participants in the class will also be invited to share comments and questions about specific sermons preached by Dean Wells this semester. The forum will be held in Room 0012 of the Westbrook Building at 9:45 a.m.

SHARE YOUR HOLIDAYS—This month, the Local Missions Team of the Congregation will be participating in the Duke Community Service Center's "Share Your Holidays" project. This program supplies donated new gifts to disadvantaged Durham citizens who might not otherwise have Christmas gifts. Interested parties will be able to pick individuals to help, beginning on Sunday, November 23, and the Congregation will be collecting gifts through Sunday, December 7. Look for the Christmas Angel bulletin board as you leave the Chapel after worship.

HEIFER INTERNATIONAL—For the seventh consecutive year, the children and youth of the Congregation will be raising money to benefit Heifer International. Children's Classes will be selling greeting cards, which are suitable as Christmas cards or for other purposes. The Youth Group will sponsor the Living Gift Market, allowing people the chance to support Heifer through purchasing bees, tree seedlings, cows, or other livestock. Look for the children and youth by the front steps of the Chapel following the Sunday services through December 14.

BETHLEHEM IMPORTS—The World Missions committee will once again be selling goods from Bethlehem Imports. These beautiful olivewood carvings are hand-made by Palestinian Christians and imported directly from Bethlehem. The proceeds of the sale will go to support the artisans and to provide scholarships for upcoming missions trips. Sale of these items will take place in front of the Chapel following worship today through December 14.

YOUNG ADULT POTLUCK—The Young Adults of the Congregation are gathering for a potluck dinner on Wednesday, December 10, at 7:00 p.m., at the home of Rev. McKennon Shea. If you are interested in attending, or for more information, please contact the Congregation office or Rev. McKennon at mckennon.shea@duke.edu.
