Service of Worship

Second Sunday after the Epiphany

Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday

January 18, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God

The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Today we honor the witness of the Rev. Dr Martin Luther King, Jr., recalling his conviction that injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. Our service includes a litany in memory of those who lit the light of freedom, together with jazz music and a sermon reflecting on race and the Christian faith. Our opening hymn, "Lift Every Voice, and Sing," is sometimes called the Black national anthem.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

A LITANY FOR MARTIN LUTHER KING SUNDAY

(The congregation responds with the text in bold.)

God of justice and mercy, you have given us a great cloud of witnesses, who made the long walk to freedom, and are still a pillar of cloud marking the path today,

For Sojourner Truth, Frederick Douglass, Nat Turner, Richard Allen, and all who lived and persevered through times when hope was dim,

We give you thanks and praise.

For Harriet Tubman, Ida Wells-Barnett, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Marcus Garvey, James Weldon Johnson, and Paul Rosamund Johnson, and all who dreamed the dream and gave it song,

We give you thanks and praise.

For W.E.B. du Bois, Booker T. Washington, Mary Church Terrell, and Septima
Clark, and all who upheld the dream through times of doubt and sorrow,

We give you thanks and praise.

For James Baldwin, Howard Thurman, Langston Hughes and Mary
McCleod Bethune, and all who sustained the dream and gave it voice,

We give you thanks and praise.

For Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King Jr, and Ella Baker, and all who lived the dream,

We give you thanks and praise.

For Paul Robeson, Fannie Lou Hamer, A. Philip Randolph, Adam Clayton Powell, and Pauli Murray, and all who have carried the dream forward through times of tragedy and joy.

We give you thanks and praise.

Make us, Lord, a people who cherish the memory of the examples you lay before us; honor the struggle of those who continue to give their lives to make your dream come true, and seek through your Son to make that dream our dream, so that we too may enter the richness of your glory.

Amen.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the Department of Biology. We celebrate its study of living organisms and how they interact with each other and the environment. The ushers bring a petri dish to the altar.

In Durham we pray for the people who bring food to us, especially for farmworkers, food service workers, and the people within local ministries who seek to be mindful of the principles of sustainable agriculture. A representative brings a basket of fresh North Carolina apples to the altar.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

Precious Lord, take my hand, guide my feet to that land. Take my hand, precious Lord, and lead me home.

Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on, let me stand; I am tired, I am weak, I am worn. Through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light. Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home.
