In this morning's gospel lesson from Mark, Jesus tells his followers to take up their crosses and to follow him. In this act of obedience, they will be freed to live in Christ. This lesson is read alongside Genesis, which recounts God's promise to Abram and Sarai that they will be ancestors of a great nation, despite their advanced age and Sarai's barrenness. God plants seeds of new life and ripe promise in otherwise dessicated places. Our obedience opens us to losing the life we make for ourselves, and finding ourselves instead in the story of God.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support human service organizations in the greater Durham area. These nonprofit organizations are identified to receive funds by a panel of Congregation members, Friends, and students. The grant-making process not only benefits people in need, but also seeks to introduce students to faithful stewardship and community development.

ABOUT TODAY'S GUEST CHOIR—Today's guest choir is the concert choir for Emory & Henry College in Emory, VA, which is a United Methodist affiliated college. Founded in 1958 by Dr. Charles R. Davis, the choir has toured coast to coast and around the world. Alumni from the Concert Choir have gone on to successful careers in opera, music ministry, teaching, and conducting, as well as many liberal arts disciplines. The choir celebrated its 50th anniversary last year with a tour through Austria and Germany, followed by a reunion with more than 200 alumni. The 2008-2009 Concert Choir was selected as one of two collegiate choirs to perform at the Virginia Music Educators Association conference in November 2008.

PATHWAYS HOUSE RESIDENCY APPLICATIONS—Join members of the PathWays house for dinner on Tuesday nights to learn what it is like to live in the PathWays House. Residency applications are now being accepted for rising juniors and seniors who are interested in living in intentional Christian community during the 2009-10 academic year. PathWays internship and Lilly fellowship applications are also being accepted. If you have questions or would like to RSVP for a Tuesday dinner, please contact PathWays Director Keith Daniel at kd1@duke.edu.
