

DUKE UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Fifth Sunday in Lent

March 29, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

≈ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ≈

*Melchizedek stained glass window,
Christ Our King Catholic Church, Mt. Pleasant, SC*

The letter to the Hebrews from which we read this morning presents Jesus as the great high priest and notes the particular qualities that fit him for this office, so bound up with freeing the people from their sins. It quotes Psalm 110:4 as referring to Jesus, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” Melchizedek was the King of Salem who in Genesis 14 blessed Abraham. The name has its root in two Hebrew words, “melek” (king) and “tzedek” (righteous)—king of righteousness. Today we reflect on the ways Jesus is a priest and the ways we are priests.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

GREETING

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 417

O For a Heart to Praise My God RICHMOND

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND WORDS OF ASSURANCE (in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

The minister speaks words of assurance.

(All exchange signs and words of God's peace.)

PROCLAMATION

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters, he restoreth my soul, he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness, for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Why do the nations rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and his anointed. Saying, let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh, and the Lord shall have them in derision. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy Shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

—Psalms 2:1-4 and 23

*DOXOLOGY (sung to the tune of When I Survey the Wondrous Cross)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

THANKSGIVING AND COMMUNION

This morning we give thanks for the School of Medicine. We celebrate its dedication to the physical care and healing of those people who suffer because of accident or illness, and we lift up those who walk with patients through difficult times. In particular, we pray for the Department of Community and Family Medicine and its outreach to the poor and most neglected in the community of Durham. A representative brings a stethoscope to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who are victims of homicide and the families, friends, and neighborhoods touched by these deaths. A representative brings a yellow rose and a list of names of the 24 people who died violently in Durham during 2008.

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

(Musical Setting C, on page 20 of the hymnal)

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

All those who have become members of Christ's body through baptism and seek to be united with God and at peace with their neighbor are invited to receive communion. Wine is used for communion. The tradition as understood at Duke Chapel is that the Holy Spirit makes Christ fully present in both the bread and the wine. If you receive only the bread, be assured that you are nonetheless in full communion with Christ and the Church.

If you would like to receive individual anointing with oil and prayers for healing, ministers will be in the Memorial Chapel during communion.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support Duke Chapel's engagement with the Durham community. Specifically, funds will support deepening relationships in the West End neighborhood as well as Dean Wells' Community Engagement series. These endeavors offer opportunities for those involved in the life of Duke Chapel to grow in faith together with downtown Durham neighborhoods and congregations. As Duke Chapel deepens its commitment to seek the welfare of the city of Durham, we hope these encounters will foster meaningful and transformational relationships in our community.

ORGAN RECITAL—Today at 5:00 p.m., organist Iain Quinn will present the rarely performed Seven Chorale-Poems on the Seven Last Words of Christ by Charles Tournemire. These seven musical "meditations" (in anticipation of Holy Week), performed on the recently restored Aeolian organ, will include readings by Dean Sam Wells.
