During the fifty days of the Easter season, the first reading on each Sunday is from the Acts of the Apostles and charts how the first Christians shaped their life in the light of the resurrection. The reading for today says that the earliest followers of Jesus "were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common... There was not a needy person among them." Today's sermon will reflect on the role of money in a community shaped by Jesus' resurrection. We will also be commissioning the summer interns for the PathWays program, and lift them up as they seek to live in intentional Christian community over the summer months.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.

RESPONSE

PATHWAYS SUMMER COMMISSIONING

The Rev. Daniel: The role of the PathWays Interns is to spend the summer exploring vocation through communal life in the West End neighborhood and employment in nonprofit organizations in Durham. Is this your understanding of the role to which you have been called?

Interns: It is.

The Rev. Daniel: The Lord bless you with courage, faith, and mutual forbearance as you seek God and seek to make God known.

People: Amen.

The Rev. Daniel: Loving God, bless all those for whom today marks a significant beginning and all those who inspire us in their abiding commitment to the Durham community. Teach us how to walk in your footsteps, day by day.

CALL TO PRAYER

Minister: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Minister: Let us pray.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

(The congregation responds to each petition: "Hear our prayer.")

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Crown Him!

David Arcus
(b. 1959)

Crown him! Crown him! Crown him! Crown him Lord of all!

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne.
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing, who died and rose on high,
who died, eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of peace, whose power a scepter sways from pole to pole, that wars may cease, and all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end, and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Crown him the Lord of love; behold his hands and side,
those wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified.
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou has died for me;
thy praise and glory shall not fail throughout eternity.

Amen!

*DOXOLOGY

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below; Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

THANKSGIVING

This morning we give thanks for the Nicholas School of the Environment. We celebrate the ways faculty, staff and students seek to understand, care for, and preserve creation. We are grateful for their training in the areas of both science and policy, which empowers leaders in a variety of fields to safeguard the fabric of the created order. Ushers bring a small globe to the altar.

In Durham, we lift up those who suffer from depression, loneliness, or quiet desperation. A representative brings forward a personal journal.

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

*THE LORD'S PRAYER (number 895 in the hymnal, in unison)

SENDING FORTH

*BENEDICTION

*RECESSIONAL HYMN 702

Sing with All the Saints in Glory

HYMN TO JOY

*CHORAL BLESSING

God Be in My Head

John Rutter
(b. 1945)

in my looking. God be in my mouth and in my speaking. God be in my heart and in my thinking. God be at my end and in my departing.

CHAPEL ANNOUNCEMENTS

EASTER LILIES—The lilies adorning the chancel this morning are provided by the Hanks Family Chapel Fund, established through the generosity of the late Miss Nancy Hanks, former Duke University Trustee, and her mother, the late Mrs. Virginia Hanks.

TODAY'S OFFERING—All of today's cash offerings and undesignated checks will be used to support the Chapel's PathWays program that offers undergraduates and recent graduates varied opportunities to discern God's call for their lives. Our extended Lilly grant requires a 50% match from the Chapel.

CHAPEL CHOIR—Today is the last Sunday for the Chapel Choir until the fall semester. We offer particular thanks to those choir members who are singing with the choir for the last time today. If you are a student who is interested in joining the Chapel Choir next semester, please call 684-3898. On the final Sunday of the academic year, the choir does not encircle the congregation for "God Be In My Head," but it gathers in the narthex and encircles all the singers who are graduating and so are singing with the choir for the last time. Duke Chapel also welcomes singers to its Summer Choir that assists in leading worship from May 31 to August; the choir is under the direction of Dr. Allan Friedman. Regular rehearsals are on Sundays at 9:15 a.m. Call 684-3898 for details.

SERMONS AVAILABLE—Copies of today's sermon are available in the communication stands at either side of the narthex, just after you enter the front doors of the Chapel. A downloadable PDF, podcast, and webcast of sermons each week are available on our website, www.chapel.duke.edu.

NEW COMMUNITY HOUSE—Duke University Chapel is offering an opportunity to join in a new endeavor of shared residential life at 2003 Chapel Hill Road, Durham NC 27707. By residing together in one of Durham's poorer neighborhoods, participants will experience the opportunity to live in relationship as Christian companions to one another and with neighbors in Durham's greater West End. Those interested in exploring living in Christian community should contact the Rev. Abby Kocher at abby.kocher@duke.edu.
