

DUKE
UNIVERSITY
CHAPEL

Service of Worship

Third Sunday after Pentecost

June 21, 2009

Eleven o'clock in the morning

~ Keeping the heart of the University listening to the heart of God ~

"Goliath Cursing David," by William Blake, 1805.

The story of the people of Israel is characterized by the unexpected. One of the more confounding instances in the biblical narrative is the story of the young shepherd boy, David, and his surprise triumph over the mighty Goliath. In Mark's gospel, Jesus stills the chaotic waters during a windstorm, revealing his power over creation. In his letter to the Corinthian church, Paul speaks of the many hardships that accompany a life of faith, including being ridiculed and persecuted. And yet, for Paul, the Christian faith is not defined by its social prominence, but by the inner joy and peace in the midst of life's storms.

At the close of today's service, the Lord's Supper will be celebrated in the Memorial Chapel located to the left of the chancel. Immediately following the Lord's Supper, a service of prayer for healing will also be held. The service consists of prayers for healing and wholeness, with anointing and laying on of hands. All are invited.

The congregation is asked to remain silent during the prelude as a time of prayer and meditation.
